FAMED

OR

I was minding my own business in the hot tub of a small hotel one evening, when I knew in my spirit I was supposed to minister to these two young ladies. There was no doubt that they were lost, deep in sin and looking for answers. It was one of these times when I knew the Holy spirit was talking to them in a powerful way. They were listening, asking some very deep and interesting questions and it appeared that their heart was being pricked by God Himself. So far so good... until a big fellow who came to join us, commanded me in a very strong and authoritative way to stop "talking about Jesus!" I was shocked, furious, but almost felt sheepish and apologetic until I realized that it was the same spirit of Anti-Christ who forbade Peter and John "to speak in that Name" (Acts 3). Therefore their answer must be our answer, their prayer must be ours... "Lord behold their threatening, and grant us that with all boldness we may speak your word, by stretching out your hands to heal and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of your Holy child Jesus"

They didn't keep quiet, they didn't shy away from the Gospel but rather spoke with more passion, more zeal and God moved and confirmed His word. Too often we ask God for more power, more anointing, when really what we need is more boldness. We just need to step out and start talking.

TOO OFTEN WE ASK
GOD FOR MORE POWER
MORE ANOINTING,
WHEN REALLY WHAT WE NEED IS MORE BOLDNESS

Paul said in Eph 6:19 "And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the Gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains, that therein I may speak boldly as I ought to speak". Now Paul indeed was an ambassador for Christ, but so are we.

II Cor 5 calls us a new creation, the righteousness of God, an ambassador who is given the ministry of reconciliation, as though God is pleading through us...

You and I are ambassadors, messengers appointed and sent by God to represent Him. And if ambassadors then we have complete authority in His Name, we have diplomatic immunity (we don't have to be subject to the laws of sin and death, to sickness and poverty) we are even backed up by the kingdom's wealth, better yet we have a direct hot line to the king.

Let us not bow down to the devil tactics of intimidation but rather, next time the devil or somebody else tells you to keep quiet...remember you have been called, appointed, commanded to preach in His Name. "Jesus I know, Paul I know... but who are you?"

Are you Famed or Tamed?

A FEW GOOD QUOTES

Courage is rightly esteemed the first of human qualities, because it is the quality which guarantees all others.

Winston Churchill.

R.H. Macy failed seven times before his store in New York caught on. English novelist John Creasey got 753 rejection slips before he published 564 books. When Thomas Edison invented the light bulb, he tried 2,000 times before he got it to work. Babe ruth struck out 1330 times but he also hit 714 home runs. Don't worry about failure, worry about the chances you miss when you don't even try.

Wall Street Journal

As human beings, we are endowed with freedom of choice, and we cannot shuffle off our responsibility upon the shoulders of God or nature. We must shoulder it ourselves. It is up to us.

Arnold J. Toynbee

THE RIGHTEOUS ARE BOLD AS A LION

Prov. 28:1

WE ARE CALLED TO STAND OUT, NOT TO BLEND IN.

John Mason

The most damaging effect of the force of fear is paralysis. It is far more dangerous because it's so subtle. The Devil's goal in producing paralysis is simply to keep you from doing anything. He neutralizes your God-given power to change your life by trapping you in indecision.

Pastor Mac Hammond

It is when we all play safe that we create a world of utmost insecurity.

Dag Hammarskjold

A successful man is one who can lay a foundation with the bricks others have thrown at him.

David Brinkley, TV journalist.
